

SANDE'S RIDING BRINGS THUNDERCLAP HOME

"King of Jockeys" Clever Work Beats Knot by Nose

Modo, at 4 to 1, Takes Troy Selling Stakes to Surprise of Talent—Jock Scot Wins Under Wraps.

By ED CURELY.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Aug. 15.—(Herald Staff Writer.)—The king of jockeys, Clever, made the crowd at the course this afternoon stand up and "holler their heads off." This wizard of the saddle brought Thunderclap home victorious for the Rancocas stable, in the Watervliet Handicap, by an inch ahead of Knot.

Thunderclap carried 135 pounds, to 11 for Knot, and ran the mile in 1:37 1-5. This can be put down in the book as a wonderful performance. But to Sande must be the credit given. Only his presence in the saddle kept Thunderclap home by the almost unseen advantage. One hundred yards from the wire Thunderclap was beaten. Within this space of ground Sande electrified the crowd by his demoniac riding. He roused over the wire, and when the black bird went to the utmost limit. One could see Sande's eyes sideways, watching every move of Knot.

On the mare was Keogh pleading and urging her to beat that black and stashed Thunderclap. He was striding over the wire, and when the line Sande made the effort—the supreme effort that has brought him fame. For an instant appeared as if he pulled Thunderclap. Then an gigantic leap, and Thunderclap was over the line or a fortune.

It was a flash that one reads about, but seldom has the good fortune to witness.

It was the fast thinking of Sande that helped the victor. It was really his superhuman handling that saved the day for those who played Thunderclap at 15 to 1.

Buck Herzog Canned; Columbus Fans Sore

Fans in Columbus, Ohio, are giving Manager Clarence Rowland the grand run for his recent action in disposing of Buck Herzog to the Louisville Club at the water price. Buck has been doing his work at second base for Columbus and has been hitting around .300. The fans take the sale as an indication that the Chicago owners of the Columbus Club are planning to get out from under this winter and hope to cash in on their players while there is yet time.

Buck connected with Columbus after he had been turned down by all the major leagues.
